Student Government is charged with the responsibility of funding most of the activities on campus. The nearly $300,000 of Student Activities Fee Monies are used to fund such things as the varsity sports program, concerts, speakers, C.U.B., Marching Band, and most of the Drama and Art shows. Many other services are also funded by S.G.A.

S.G.A. and the S.G.A. president also act as the official voice of the students. It is our responsibility to make sure that student sentiments are understood by the College Administration when new policies are proposed that would affect us or old ones are challenged.

Dr. McNerney had done an excellent job in supporting the needs of the students. With Dr. McNerney retiring this June, it is our hope at S.G.A. that the new college president will be as open minded to our needs as was Dr. McNerney.

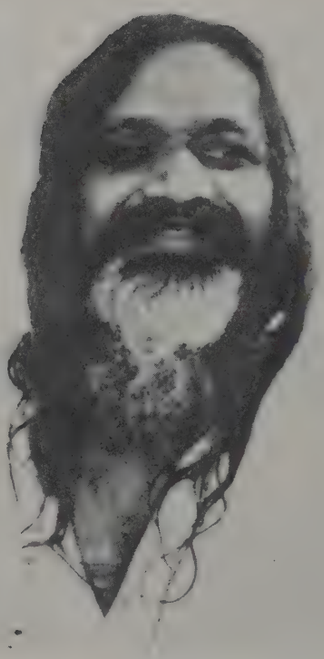
The hard-hitting reporting of 60 Minutes (below) consistently gave it high Nielsen ratings. Some students said it was the only TV show they watched.



In 1970 the Maharishi Maresh Yogi taught the Beatles to meditate, starting a fad in the United States. About 40 million Americans found answers in astrology, the belief that the position of planets and stars influences human life.

Cloris Leachman and Valerie Harper got laughs as liberated sidekicks to Mary Tyler Moore, and went on to have their own shows.

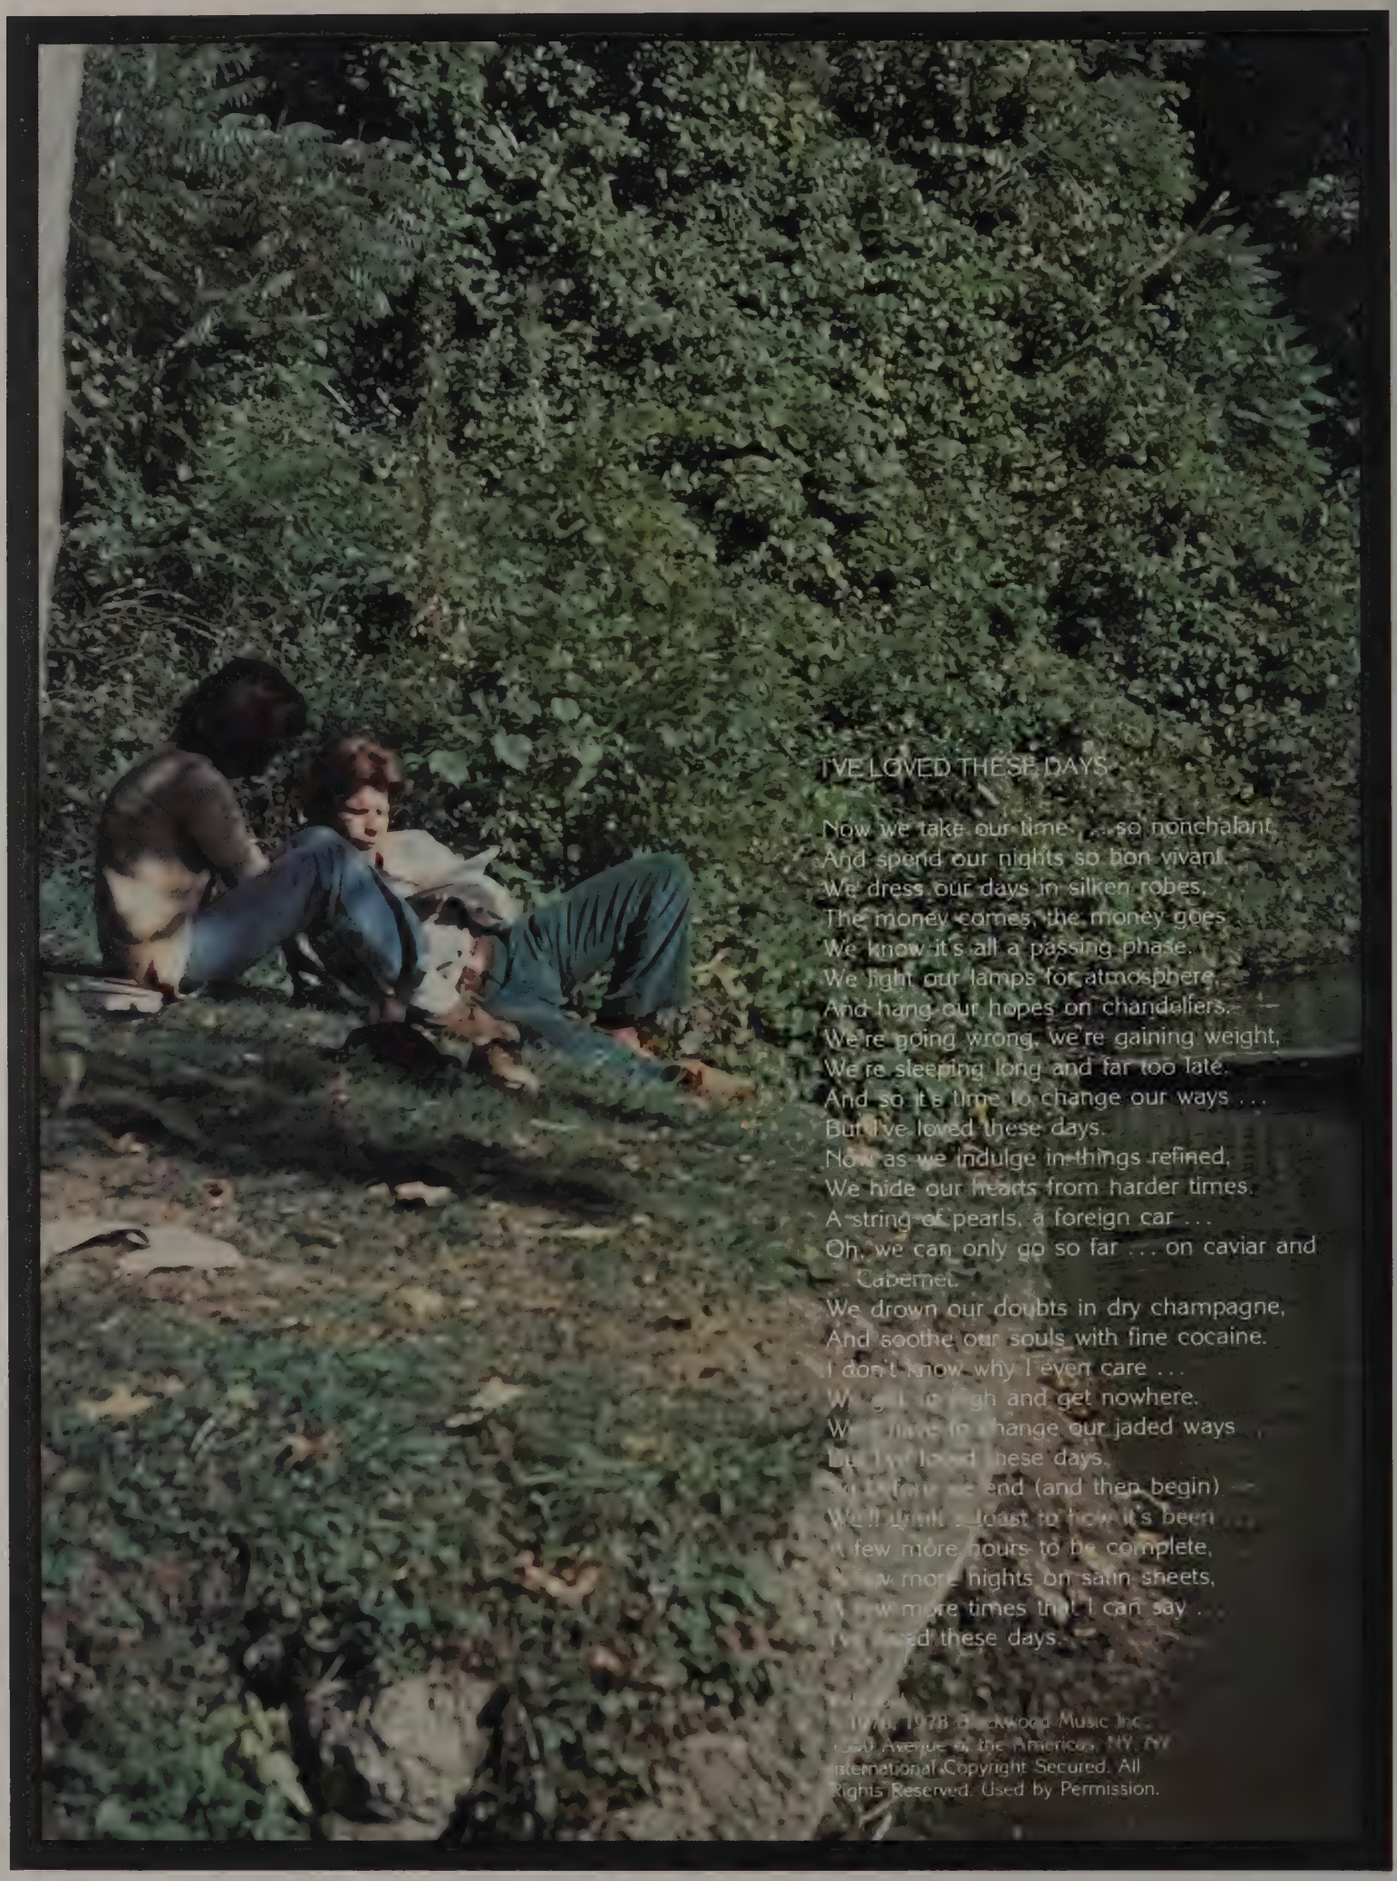
BORO



I'VE LOVED THESE DAYS

Now we take our time . . . so nonchalant.
And spend our nights so bon vivant.
We dress our days in silken robes,
The money comes, the money goes
We know it's all a passing phase.
We light our lamps for atmosphere,
And hang our hopes on chandeliers.
We're going wrong, we're gaining weight,
We're sleeping long and far too late.
And so it's time to change our ways . . .
But I've loved these days.
Now as we indulge in things refined,
We hide our hearts from harder times.
A string of pearls, a foreign car . . .
Oh, we can only go so far . . . on caviar and Cabernet.
We drown our doubts in dry champagne,
And soothe our souls with fine cocaine.
I don't know why I even care . . .
We [illegible] high and get nowhere.
We [illegible] to change our jaded ways . . .
But I've loved these days.
[illegible] end (and then begin)
We'll [illegible] toast to how it's been . . .
A few more hours to be complete,
A few more nights on satin sheets,
A few more times that I can say . . .
I've loved these days.

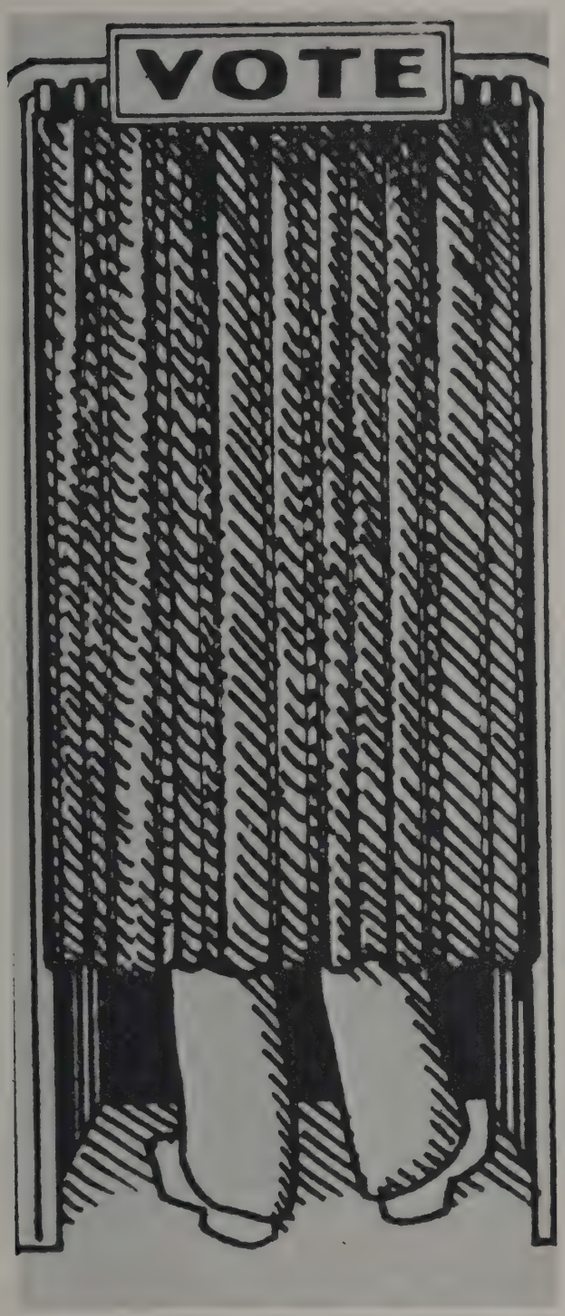
Happy Birthday Letter To A Friend

Campus disturbances began to take on a nationwide importance. On May 4, 1970 four Kent State University students were killed and nine injured when Ohio National Guardsmen fired on them during a demonstration.

In 1974, the bump brought back touch dancing of sorts. Instead of gyrating opposite a partner, couples bumped parts of their bodies to the beat of the music. In 1978, SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER cashed in on the discomania.



The country gained eleven million voters on June 30, 1971, when Ohio became the 38th state to ratify a constitutional amendment giving 18 year olds the right to vote.

Students got national exposure in the spring of 1974 by dashing across campus in the buff — a pastime dubbed "streaking".

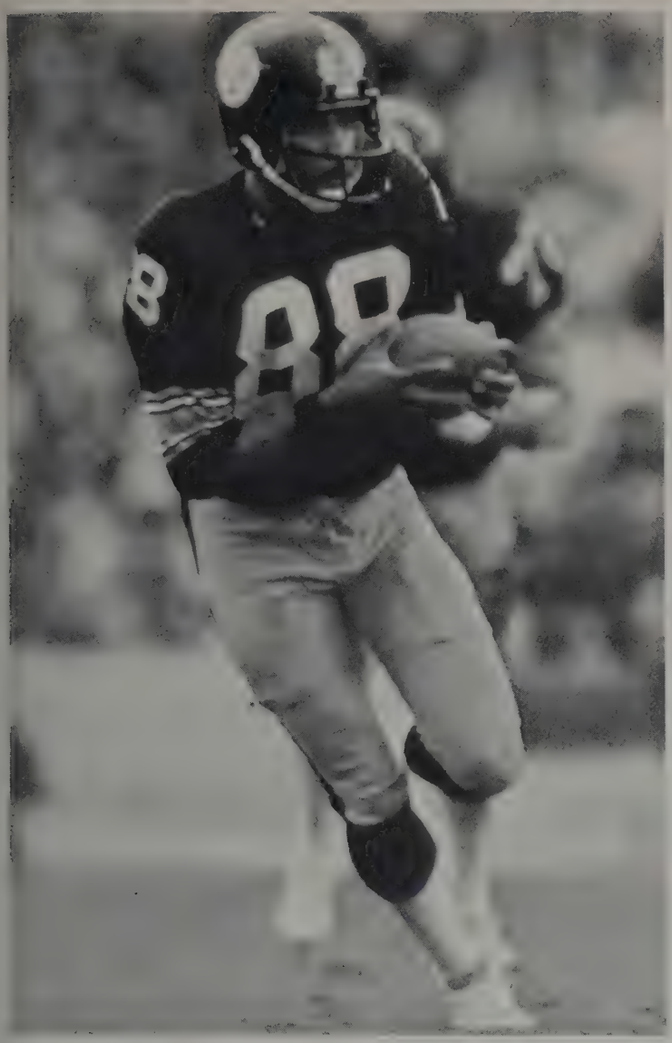
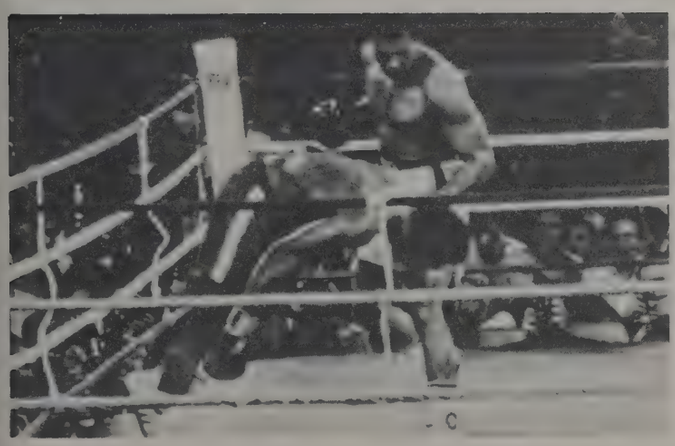
Appearing at Edinboro on May 9, 1977, the young Swede, Bjorn Borg, the idol of the teenage set the world over, displayed his extraordinary tennis form at McComb Fieldhouse. Taking over from Jimmy Connors as the hottest tennis star in the late 70's Borg has continued to dominate tennis circles.

Indiana University swimmer Mark Spitz won seven gold medals in the Summer Olympic Games at Munich. The games were marred by Ab terrorism.



On January 21, 1979, the Pittsburgh Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Bruce Jenner produced the greatest effort of his life to win the 1976 Olympic decathalon in Montreal with a world record score. His performance earned him the unofficial designation of the world's number one all round athlete and highest paying advertising com contracts. Two other crowd pleasers were tiny gymnast Nadia Comaneci of Romania and Dorothy Hamill — a skater for the United States.



In 1974 Muhammed Ali knocked out George Foreman to regain the heavyweight title he lost in 1967 because of his refusal to be drafted.

Pres. McNerney Leaves ESC

Edinboro State College President, Dr. Chester T. McNerney, announced at the October meeting of the College's Board of Trustees that he would retire effective June 30, 1979, as Edinboro's President.

"I've had 13 wonderful years and I'm filled with a great many pleasant memories," reflected McNerney in making the announcement.

During his tenure, the College experienced its greatest period of growth when 15 new facilities were added to a vastly expanded Edinboro State College campus. Included among these were the Baron-Forness Library, several education classroom buildings, dormitories, McComb Field House, a new Student Union and dining hall, in addition to an administration building.

Under his direction, the college has witnessed expanded community service and research programs, as well as adding major programs in the arts, sciences and humanities, both at the undergraduate and graduate levels. He was also instrumental in the development of the "Wheelchair Campus" at ESC.

"I am most pleased when looking over the past years at Edinboro with the initiation of our programs in human services such as nursing, dietetics and medical technology. This brought a balance to the school and augmented well the traditional education, art and music programs," summed Dr. McNerney.

In retirement, the Edinboro president plans to finish two books he is working on and continue his academic pursuits on a consultant basis in the Williamsburg, Virginia area.

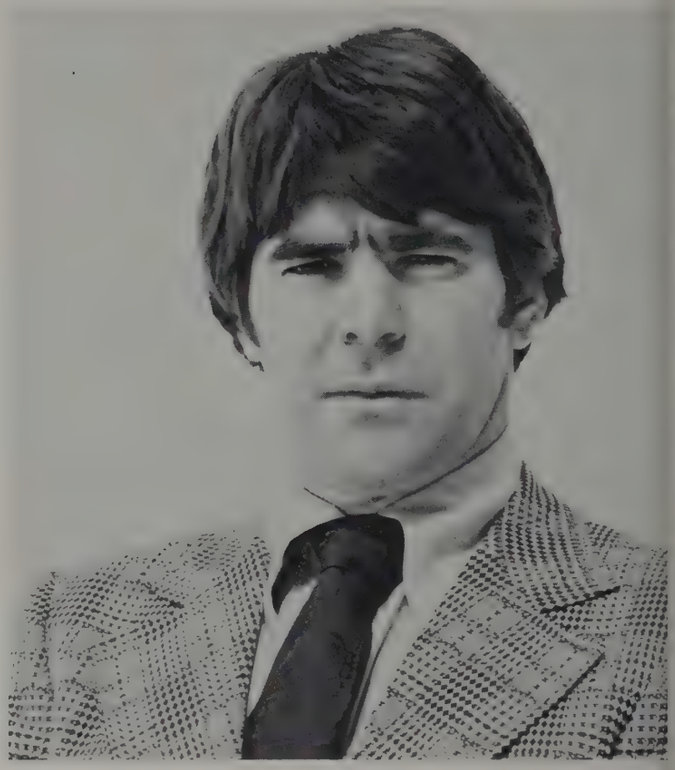
Dennis Creehan Appointed New Football Coach



Edinboro State appointed the ninth mentor in its football history Tuesday, Feb. 20 with the announcement that Dennis Creehan, an assistant to the staff for the past three years, has been named the Fighting Scots' head coach. Creehan will fill the position which came open early in December when Bill McDonald who guided the program for ten years decided to leave the post because of health reasons.

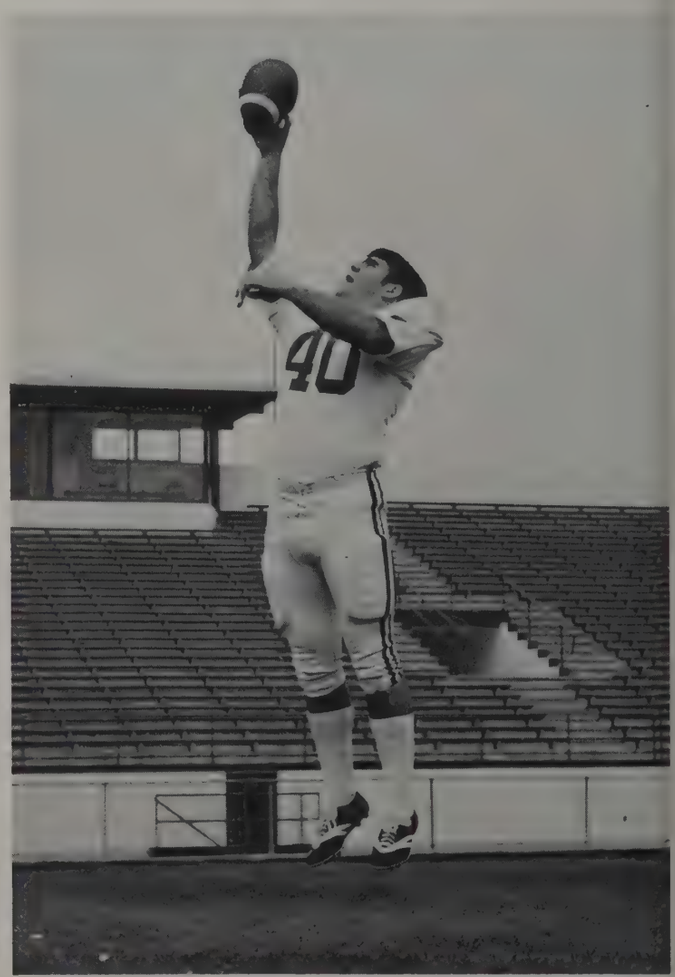
I appreciate the opportunity the College has given me and look forward to the challenge of directing our football program, commented the 29-year old coach. Of course, I am a graduate of Edinboro State College and it means an awful lot to me personally to be placed in this position. Now we can solidify our staff and concentrate on recruiting efforts, he added.

Creehan was a captain of Edinboro State's 1970 team that captured the Lambert Bowl, emblematic as the best small college football team in the East; won the Pennsylvania Conference championship and earned a berth in the NAIA national playoffs. He starred in the secondary as a strong safety that season when the Fighting Scots finished their regular campaign undefeated with a 9-0 record.

Prior to his stint on the Edinboro State staff, Creehan served as recruiting coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh in 1974 under Coach Johnny Majors. The following year he was a member of the Carnegie Mellon University football staff as the team's offensive coordinator.

Creehan distinguished himself in the coaching ranks as defensive coordinator at Edinboro State in 1976 when the Scots were ranked fourth among the nations NCAA schools in rushing defense and claimed 18 interceptions. In the spring of 1977, he performed as acting head coach for Edinboro State's Bill McDonald who was on a sabbatical leave.

Along with his B.S. degree from Edinboro in 1971, Creehan has also earned an M.S. degree from Duquesne University and an M.Ed. from Pitt.



Professor Azicri Visits Cuba

On November 20-21, 1978, a conference promoted by the Cubian government entitled "Dialogue", convened in Havana. Attending, along with other Cubian nationals living overseas, was E.S.C. Political Science Professor Max Azicri. A commission appointed by the Cubian government helped co-ordinate the conference which was presided over by President Fidel Castro. Topics of discussion were rights of Cubian expatriates to visit Cuba in addition to rights of Cuban citizens to travel abroad; reunification of Cubian families; and the release of 3,668 political prisoners held in the country.

Prof. Max Azicri and E.S.C. Pres. Chester McNerney.

Dr. Miller Directs NPSSH

Dr. G.H. Miller, an Administrator at Edinboro State College, has begun the NPSSH (Northwestern Pennsylvania Study on Smoking and Health).

As director of NPSSH, Dr. Miller has continued extensive study and research on filter cigarette smoking being more dangerous than non-filter cigarettes, and the decreased longevity of the non smoker who associates with the smoker.

The study was originally started in May 1974 based on a grant from No Other World, an environmental organization, and partial support was provided by the health organizations — Northwestern Pennsylvania Lung Association, Northwestern Pennsylvania Cancer Society (Erie Section), and the American Heart Association — Northwestern Pennsylvania section.

Dr. Miller is presently a board member of the National Interagency Council on Smoking and Health and has been active in providing Stop Smoking Clinics in the Erie area.

WFSE FM 88.7

WFSE, the College's FM-licensed radio station, began operation this year under the supervision of Dr. Gary Christiansen. The station airs 60 hours a week in a Magazine format and style, which emphasizes local news. With an education FM license, the station is a member of the Associated Press news wire service and the Inter-Collegiate broadcast system.

WFSE (88.7 FM) is the first station in the country with subsidiary communication to wheelchair and blind students. Currently, the station has a membership of 80 and all full-time students with a 2.0 cumulative point average minimum may seek membership. The Speech Communications Department offers courses in broadcast media in connection with the station. Studios are in Compton Hall 104.

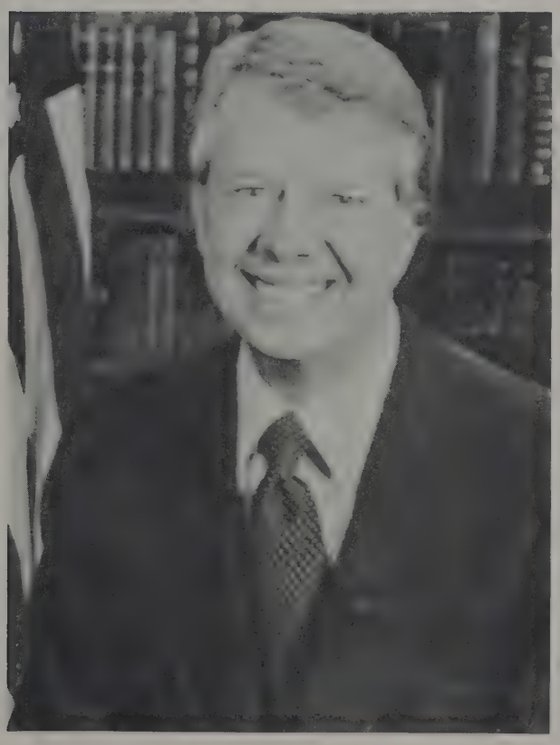
Spiro Agnew resigned from the vice presidency on Oct. 10, 1973, after pleading no contest to tax evasion charges. During his five years in office, his outspoken attacks on college students made him a household word.

Said Agnew: "A spirit of national masochism prevails, encouraged by an effete corps of impudent snobs who characterize themselves as intellectuals."



Alone in the Oval Office with a single Secret Service agent and a camera crew, Richard Nixon told the nation in a live broadcast that he would resign as the president the next day—August 9, 1974. His decision came after impeachment proceedings had been started against him by Congress and his political support had faded.

In 1976, Jimmy Carter, the peanut farmer from Plains, Georgia, took his campaign to the people and became the first president from the Deep South since the Civil War.

Comedians Steve Martin and Lilly Tomlin had loyal fans on campus even before they became celebrities of the hour. Martin's white suits and "Well, ekkscuuse me!!" and Tomlin's Ernestine, the obnoxious telephone operator, became national classics.

Bicycles outsold cars for the first time since World War I, and many of them could be found parked on the nation's campuses.

In 1971, thousands of women, claiming to have been second class citizens for too long burned bras and held rallies to demand equality.

The year 1976 marked the first time in history that West Point opened its doors to female cadets. The naval and air force followed suit.

Singer Pearl Bailey proudly showed off her student ID card after enrolling as a freshman at Georgetown University.

EDITORS NOTE

Not only is this the last book of the Seventies — it is also the last book for us.

We would like to take this time to thank everyone who gave so much of their time and effort to help with this volume of the Tartan. To the yearbook's brand new staff and photographers who have been really cooperative, Delmar Representative Dave Gentile, P.R. secretary and confidant Patti Loomis, and our advisor Paul Newman, a very heartfelt thank you.

It has been our pleasure being part of the Tartan for the past four years. We only hope that these yearbooks that are so much a part of us, can in some way become a part of you as memories of ESC.
